

New Road Primary School

Weekly Newsletter– 17th November 2023 (Week 9)

Active Homework: Following our school 'Bearpee' Challenge now it's time for the family challenge, who can do the most Burpee's in your house in 1 minute?

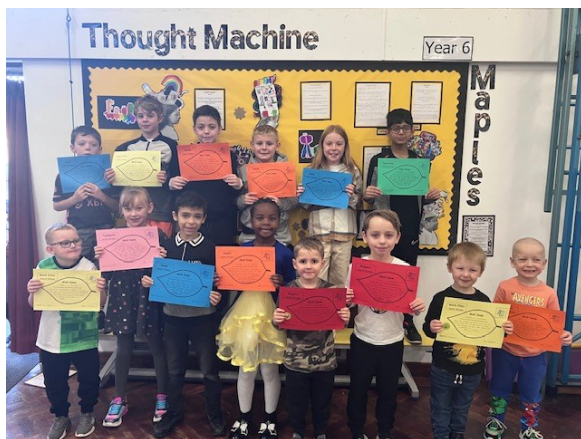

Weekly Update

The fun never stops here at New Road. We launched our Anti Bullying Week on Monday with our 'Odd Sock Day' and our Head Boy and Head Girl led a whole school assembly.

Our Athletics Team participated in a tournament at Ryburn and came 2nd in the Small Schools category.

On Thursday we had a special surprise visitor— Pudsey Bear came and met all the children before our fundraising started for Children In Need Day.

Today all the children have been having great fun participating in the events including the 'Bearpee' Challenge. We'd like you to join in the fun too with this weeks Active Homework !!!!

Extra Care

Can all parents please take extra care when walking on the path near the road during very busy periods. I was made aware of an incident where the wing mirror of a bus clipped a parent on the arm. Thank fully their child was on the inside of the path rather than roadside. No serious injury was caused but please be extra vigilant and ensure your child is always on the inside of the path.
