Weekly Newsletter– 19th January 2024 (Week 16)

Active Homework: Wrap up warm and go on a lovely wintry walk with your family. Have you managed to find any snow that's still settled ?

Weekly Update

The children have had a great week enjoying lots of new topics in class. In Year 2 the children have started learning about The Plague in History and they had an exciting week making 'Super Vegetables' which were hidden around school to protect them from 'Evil Pea' they are now writing a newspaper report about the incident !!! (Don't worry all the activities are linked to their class book 'Supertato')

Year 6 have started reading 'Holes' and have just completed the Young Writers Poetry competition writing poetry on the theme, Dreams. They have also started their Vikings and Evolution topics.

Year 1 have been taste testing different ingredients in their 'Sensational Salads' and have started the book 'Traction Man.'

Our reception children are learning about the Arctic and Polar Bears—very appropriate with this weeks weather !!

Year 3 have been using paragraphs and speech in their writing inspired by Little Red Riding Hood.

Year 4 have been researching Polar regions looking at the climate zones and biomes and Year 5 have started reading 'Clockwork' and have began their Anglo Saxons topic in History.
