

New Road Primary School

Weekly Newsletter–10th September (Week 27)

Welcome Back

It is great to see everybody back in school, enjoying some of the daily routines that the children have missed for some time. I have loved seeing the dining hall full again with different classes interacting together. Our school assemblies will start on Monday for our Year 1—Year 6 children which is an activity that I personally have missed the most over the last 18 months. We are looking forward to hearing news from both Mrs Bolton and Mrs Ryall as they start their maternity leave this week.

Mr McGrath has joined us to teach Year 6 and he has been an instant hit with the children, we will feature Mr McGrath in our next newsletter so you can learn more about him.

Finally, a warm welcome to all the new families who have joined us, our Reception children have had a fantastic first week with us at New Road.

Twitter

Due to all the fantastic things we are doing in school and to celebrate some of our recent successes we have decided to launch a school Twitter account. This is a great way for the wider community to hear about New Road and it also enables us to learn about further opportunities that we can implement for our pupils. If you have a Twitter account please follow us—@NewRoad_Halifax
