

New Road Primary School

Weekly Newsletter–16th September (Week 2)

Introductions

I am delighted to introduce our new Head Boy and Head Girl for 2021-2022. Both Seth and Scarlett delivered a fantastic speech each in front of the whole school and were very passionate sharing their future visions for New Road.

Our school also turned into a polling station this week with all the children placing their votes in the ballot box for their class school council representatives I am delighted to reveal the winners -

Willows—Esmae H, Zach, Junipers—Noah, Alisa, Elms— Lacey, Finn, Rowans— Herbie, Olivia,

Maples— Elise, Max. Well done to all our Year 6 children who have also been awarded responsibility roles this week. A very successful week for all our children.

PTA Meeting—newroadptateam@yahoo.com

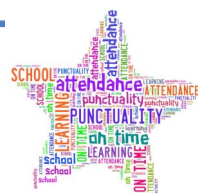

Our New PTA team are holding their first meeting of the school year on Monday 20th September in the evening (via Zoom) If anyone is interested in joining the meeting please can you send a message to the email address above. The PTA are hoping to run some events this year and provide experiences for all the children, especially after the past 18 months. If you are not able to attend meetings or commit to joining the PTA, the team are always grateful for any help manning events and are always on the lookout for any new ideas. We hope to update you soon.
