Weekly Newsletter-1st October (Week 4)

Weekly News from New Road

Firstly a huge thank you to Rochelle and Marie who have managed to source, purchase and print logos onto our new school sports kit. We are all absolutely blown away and can't wait to see the children proudly wearing their new kit. Raffle tickets will still be on sale until next Friday. Don't forget to send in your Parent Evening reply slips and on Thursday Tempest Photography will be in to take individual photos of all the children. Another full week here at New Road, well done to all the children who received an award in our Celebration Assembly this morning.

Family Learning

Family learning will be delivered virtually just after October half term with a lovely colorful activity to complete. Together with your child. We are hoping to hold a face to face Family Learning session on 1st December which will be festive themed. There will also be another virtual Family Learning session towards the end of next half term ( just before we break up for Christmas)
