

New Road Primary School

Weekly Newsletter-26th November (Week 11)

Talk Homework: If you could only learn one subject in school what would you choose and why? Ask a family member the same question and see what they say and ask the reasons why?

Weekly News

Another fun packed week at New Road with the children getting outside incorporating problem solving activities into their lessons.

The teachers have been speaking to some of the children in each class about the subjects they lead. They have been amazed at the information the children can recall on some of the topics they have covered over the years and how they can discuss clearly how certain events and historical periods impacted on others.

Thank you as always for your continued support and for all the chocolate and gift donations you have sent in for the Christmas Fayre. I will keep you updated on our Christmas events and how they will be held in school once further information on restrictions has been shared to us from Calderdale.
