Weekly Newsletter–10th December (Week 13)

Talk Homework: Do you think it feels better to give presents or receive them? Why do you think this?

Weekly Update

What another busy week we've all had at New Road, yesterday was a huge success with all the children taking time to choose thoughtful presents for family members. Our Secret Shop raised £613 so thank you to all of our PTA team who worked so hard to make it happen, they also commented on how polite our children were.

There has been lots of Christmas singing and filming of the children so I will let you know when both the KS1 Nativity and the KS2 Carol Concert are ready for you to watch on our website.

Today is the Christmas Fair for children so good luck to everybody who has bought raffle tickets for the hampers—they look great.

Next week we have our Christmas Dinner on Wednesday and the children can wear Christmas jumpers to school. Next Thursday it's the class Christmas parties so the children can come to school in non uniform.
