Weekly Update

It's been a great full week back at school this week with lots of activities in the classrooms that the children have been enjoying.

Some of the year groups have started learning new topics all of which can be found on the updated school website under Foundation Curriculum Coverage.

We have a 'Wellbeing Week' planned in school starting on 31st January so I will let you know all our plans and the activities the children will be participating in nearer the time.

We had hoped to invite parents/carers in to school during the week to join in but we may have to postpone that until our Summer Wellbeing Week.
